

WORKING IN A CONSORTIUM

THE CASE OF JIMBARAN CONSORTIUM: OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES

Presented by:

Ni Putu Sri Harta Mimba, PhD

Global Education Discussion
JW Marriott, 20 November 2014

Introduction

Why working in a consortium?

- Better communications
- Better collaborations
- Better results

Why choosing Jimbaran Consortium as an example?

- There are some lessons about:
 - Strength & weakness

Jimbaran Consortium-1

What is Jimbaran Consortium (JC)?

- The collaboration of 6 universities in Indonesia, which consists of:

Univ. Sumater Utara,

Univ. Andalas

Univ. Jember

Univ. Udayana

Univ. Sam Ratulangi

Univ. Cendrawasih

Jimbaran Consortium-2

When was JC established?

- In January 2014

Where was JC signed?

- In Jimbaran, Bali

Who were the initiators?

- The alumni of Leadership Training in Univ. of Glasgow (2013), sponsored by the British Council

Jimbaran Consortium-3

Why establish the JC?

- Members having better collaboration internally and externally (networking of leadership training BC)

How to manage JC?

- Arrange regular meetings
- Communicate via JC group mail & telp
- Circulate the homebase & coordinator

Challenges

- Contact persons & members
Replacement → ex officio position
Busy schedule → planning reg meetings
- Universities circumstances
 - Different schedule
 - Different strength & weakness
 - having good communication
- Location
 - Spread out (from Sumatera to Papua)

Opportunities

- Internally
 - Having better joint activities among 6 universities (members of JC)
 - Better opportunities to apply for Indonesian government's funding
- Externally
 - Developing better joint activities between members of JC & Univ. of Glasgow e.g. Joint research & publication, joint workshop, english training, student & staff exchange
 - More opportunities to apply for international collaborative research grants e.g. Newton Fund

THANK YOU