
BRITISH COUNCIL INTRODUCES

How to Succeed in the Global Workplace

A free online course starting on 20 November 2017

Get off to a great start in your new job by learning the essential skills to succeed in a global workplace.

The British Council and the University of Sheffield have developed this course for people preparing to enter the job market and those in the early stages of their career. 'How to Succeed in the Global Workplace' equips participants with the skills to communicate confidently, build relationships and make that all-important good first impression.

Drawing on the British Council's Intercultural Fluency Training, the course focuses on working across cultures and in diverse environments.
